High Bridge resident Steve Tipping, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary and Chief Compliance Officer at Condor Capital, a Somerset County wealth management firm, has been appointed to the Hunterdon County YMCA Board of Trustees.

Tipping also is a minority owner/partner at AAA Worldwide Transportation and Courtside Racquet Club, both in Clinton. Tipping has extensive experience in accounting, finance and economics in both academic and business environments, particularly in his role as Treasurer of Condor Capital, which manages over $600 million in portfolio assets.

“I have experience auditing non-profit organizations in Hunterdon County and Central New Jersey, including one large YMCA, and I am familiar with the current Hunterdon programs and facilities through first-hand family experience,” said Tipping. “I look forward to working with the members of the board and planning for the future of the YMCA in Hunterdon County.”

Tipping graduated with honors from State University of New York at Albany with a B.S. in accounting and a minor in economics.

Condor Capital supports hundreds of charitable organizations in Central New Jersey. The Condor Capital Charity Open at Courtside Racquet Club on Dec. 1 will benefit the Justin Gimelstob Children's Fund, which supports children's organizations in New Jersey and New York. General admission tickets are available for $100. Tickets can be purchased online at <http://www.condorcapitalopen.com> [1] or by calling Courtside at 908-713-1144.
